

GERMAN NOTE GIVEN GERARD

NO LICENSE TO MINOR EXCEPT WITH CONSENT PARENT OR GUARDIAN

Even if the supreme court does say that a male minor between 18 and 21 or a female minor between 15 and 18 can be legally married without the consent of either a parent or a guardian, no such minor can get a marriage license in Orange county—not if they tell the truth.

Even if the supreme court does seem to say that a marriage license can be secured to a male minor under 18 or a female minor under 15, if the consent of a parent or guardian be given, no such license will be issued in Orange county.

"I will not issue a license to any male under 18 nor to any female under 15, even though the consent be given," declared County Clerk Williams. If any person construes the State Supreme Court's ruling to be such that any person under the ages mentioned is entitled to a license, they will have to mandamus me and get a court order before I will issue the license."

Though the State Supreme Court has held that a marriage consummated by a 15-year-old girl without the consent of a parent or guardian is legal, no 15-year-old girl is to get a marriage license in this county without the written consent, properly sworn to by a parent or guardian.

District Attorney West and County Clerk Williams have been considering a decision of the supreme court given last May in a case taken up from Butte county. This decision was quoted by Attorney W. F. Ater of Santa Ana as putting an entirely new construction upon the marriage laws, it being his opinion that the age of consent to marry is fixed thereby for males at 18 and upwards and females at 15 and upwards.

While the district attorney admits that the ruling does cover the matter of consent, he declares that the section upon which authority is given the county clerk to issue marriage licenses is not ruled upon. That section, in effect, gives the county clerk instructions as to whom and how licenses may be issued.

Section 56, relating to marriages, reads as follows:

"Minors capable of contracting marriage. Section 56. Any unmarried male of the age of 18 or upwards, and any unmarried female of the age of 15 years and upwards, and not otherwise disqualified, are capable of consenting to and consummating marriage."

The Court's Ruling

Hitherto that section has been understood to mean that any male between 18 and 21 and any female between 15 and 18 could consent to be married. Negatively, it was taken that no male under 18 and no female under 15 was capable of being married, with or without his or her consent. In other words, it has been the practice of County Clerk Williams to absolutely refuse to issue a license to any male under 18 or any female under 15, regardless of whether or not male and female, parents or guardian, wished it.

Supreme Court

In May the supreme court handed down a decision in the Ambrose case, taken up from Butte county. A girl 15 desired to be married. Her parents strenuously objected, though conditions were such that the juvenile court officer thought the marriage should take place. In spite of objections by the parents, the officer was appointed her guardian, and he gave consent to the marriage, which was performed.

On the ground that no guardian could be legally appointed while the parents were qualified to act, the case was taken to the supreme court. The court held that the marriage was valid. The court said:

"As the minor was over the age of 15 years, she was capable of consenting to and consummating marriage, and having consented thereto, and her marriage having been duly solemnized, it was valid whether it was consented to by her parents or guardian or not. It is only when a minor who is incapacitated by a minor who is incapable of consenting to marriage by reason of being under the age of consent, as provided in Sec. 56, that the consent of parents or guardian is essential to validity, and which renders a marriage solemnized without it subject to annulment by the incapacitated minor or at the instance of the

Score One for the Jit Bus! And for a Santa Ana Babe One Helps Other Win Prize

Score one for the jitney—the much-abused jitney.

There's one woman in Santa Ana who is strong for the jitney. She is Mrs. O. H. Umberham, 1106 Bush street, wife of one of the bookkeepers of the Southern California Edison Company.

Because it was a jitney bus that made it possible for Baby Chester Umberham, aged six months, to get his picture in the Los Angeles papers, receive several yards of flattering mention in the metropolitan press, and incidentally, carry off first honors in a Los Angeles baby contest.

Baby Chester, beyond a question, was the finest and most perfect specimen of babyhood in all Southern California. His mother knew that. But how to make all Southern California know it?

Eureka! Along comes Los Angeles with a prize contest for all the babies of the southland. Mrs. Umberham wrote to the managers of the baby show for permission to enter her baby. Granted.

Baby Chester was immediately "dolled up" in exhibition togs, and the proud mother hastened down town to board a Pacific Electric for the metropolis. The Pacific Electric—possibly not knowing that a baby's honor was at stake—had departed before Mother and Baby Chester got down.

Despair! Gloom! Tears! Then the saving inspiration! A jitney! And the jitney did the rest!

Maybe the jitney broke a few speed laws. Who cares? The main thing is Baby Chester was deposited, in the arms of his mother, at the door of the exhibition hall just two minutes before the time for entries to close.

AND BABY CHESTER WON FIRST PRIZE!!

The proud parents are receiving the congratulations of their Santa Ana friends today.

AND THE DARNED LIL' FORD KEPT A-CHUGGIN' RIGHT ALONG—SURE!

PASADENA, July 9.—A weather-beaten Ford automobile, the radiator, hood and fenders of which were dented as if they had been beaten with a baseball bat, has caused much comment by its battered appearance.

The machine is owned by Henry W. Horst of Rock Island, Ill., who tells a story of a thrilling bombardment of hailstones as big as baseballs on the Colorado desert while en route to California.

Horst was riding in company with his son. They were in the middle of the Colorado desert when the storm broke without warning.

The top was almost torn to shreds by the huge chunks of ice. The glass windshield was shattered, while the body of the car was partially filled with the great hailstones.

The men sought refuge beneath the car while the heavenly bombardment lasted.

Despite the fact that the machine was dented and twisted, the motor kept running and when the falling ice ceased the journey was resumed.

THAW DESCRIBES HOW HE SLEW WHITE; COURT ROOM HOLDS ITS BREATH

NEW YORK, July 9.—Harry K. Thaw today described the killing of Stanford White.

He said:

"I walked up the aisle straight in front of him and—shot him."

The courtroom hung breathless during the long pause in the statement. Thaw spoke quietly and clearly, staring toward the roof as if visualizing the scene.

He told of carrying the gun throughout the day lest the Monk Eastman gang should attack him. He denied believing that White employed Eastman.

Thaw took Evelyn to the Madison Square Roof Garden.

He continued:

"Evelyn went ahead. I stopped to speak to acquaintances. When I looked up I saw White. He had his arms on the table, his head in his hands. Then he lifted his head and stared at me."

The description of the shooting followed.

The witness stared at Prosecutor Cook and said, "Is that all?"

Cook said, "Go on."

Thaw's lawyers objected and the objection was sustained.

Justice Stanchfield said:

"Thaw has answered the question very seriously and well."

Thaw told the jury that before he shot White the latter moved his hand back to his pocket.

Thaw declared that Mrs. Susan Merrill, proprietress of a resort, told him that White offered her $5000 for each innocent girl she procured.

"Did you kill White because he ruined Evelyn or because he injured other girls?" asked Cook.

"Miss Nesbitt had escaped White I would probably never have paid any attention to him," Thaw replied.

Justice Hendricks announced this afternoon that Evelyn Thaw would not be forced to testify. The order for her arrest has been vacated.

Hendricks said her testimony, given during Thaw's two murder trials would be read into the records of the present trial.

Beach censors have been busy censoring. Stringent bathing rules have been announced, and it is declared they will be enforced to the letter.

No male or female bather is to be allowed to lie on his or her back on the sand. One-piece bathing costumes are taboo for both sexes. Female bathers must wear stockings—and they must be full stockings. Bathers will not be allowed to lie about on the sand with their heads in another's lap.

And if you don't watch out, the censor'll get ye!

ONLY THE OTHER DAY San Marino, the smallest republic in the world—area 38 square miles, population 11,000—declared war against Germany and Austria-Hungary. The picture shows Gitano Heights in San Marino and its rulers.

SPECIAL ELECTION IS NEEDED TO GET VOTE ON NON-PARTISANSHIP

SACRAMENTO, July 9.—Only if the governor calls a special election can the non-partisan referendum and other initiative and referendum measures go on the ballot with the amendments October 26, according to an opinion handed down by the attorney general here.

A law passed by the legislature is not sufficient to put initiative and referendum matters on the ballot. There is no doubt that the governor will call the special election, as the administration forces are desirous of having the nonpartisan referendum, if sufficient signatures are secured, go to vote this fall.

If the people support the law to abolish the parties there will be no party candidates at the general election in 1916.

ROME, July 9.—The Constantinople correspondent of La Tribuna declares in dispatches today that the Turkish garrison at the capital has mutinied and killed a hundred German officers.

The dispatches assert that anti-German sentiment is increasing. The mutiny was caused by the resentment felt by the Turks at being officered by Germans.

A LETTER TELLS ABOUT BATTLE OF YPRES

J. P. Large, manager of the Santa Ana office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has received an interesting letter from a friend of his who went from Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, in the signal corps with Canadian troops. This letter tells of incidents of the battle of Ypres. It reads as follows:

"At the Front in Belgium,
May 1, 1915.
"It is some time since I last wrote to you, owing to the tremendous engagement that has been taking place for the last week. I am now going to give you a little idea of the great battle of Ypres, in which Canada played a leading part, and sorry to say had a great number of casualties. Ten of my intimate friends have been killed.
A person does not realize what war is till he sees his own friends killed in front of him.

"I will recall the 23rd of April, the starting date. At 6 p. m. on being billed at Damertingne, 3 miles west of Ypres, acting as a reserve brigade," we were startled by a terrific cannon-ade at our front. This lasted practically all night. At 6:30 p. m. I was ordered to a headquarters near Ypres, we were then under shell fire bad, and while this was taking place aeroplanes were above and some duels took place between the enemy and French planes.

"At 8 p. m. the French started to retire on account of the gases from the German lines. This asphyxiating gas is pumped from the German trenches and is carried forward by the wind and will stop any troops from advancing once it strikes them, and as luck would have it the wind was entirely in their favor the four days of the heaviest fighting.

"At 1 a. m. the 25th, we were ordered to reinforce the French on the left of the British-Canadian line, that is about one and one-half miles north of Ypres. The canal (Yser) runs parallel with the front about a mile east of Ypres. The bridge that we had to cross was called 'the gate to hell,' and it deserved the name, for as we crossed this bridge you entered a small valley and there by passing over the next ridge you were on the battlefield.
Our headquarters was this side of the canal, also our dressing station.

"At 6 a. m. the morning our brigade started to advance. I was on duty all night, operating so happened to be clear this particular morning. On a high ridge with our observation officers I saw the whole advance. From the bridge to the Germans, who were dug in on a high ridge, was a distance of a mile of nothing but a glassy slope, the field was ablaze with shrapnel and Jack Johnson shells bursting, but with a cheer and a run they were away, officer and private side by side. We would see them rise for a rush when a shell would drop right in the center of the bunch. It was a horror, the wounded streamed in the dressing station. There was mist, from smoke of shells exploding, but on they went, and captured the hill. In this charge
we lost Colonel Birchall and Captain Glover, adjutant, and many other officers and men.

"Late in the afternoon we were reinforced by the English regiments and artillery. The day was bitterly cold and windy, a strong north wind was blowing, making it harder for the men to advance. In the morning shrapnel was bursting all around us, so we had to take to cover on one or two occasions. From noon till late at night we signalled volunteering, carried wounded from the field to dressing stations. We had only one man hit in our section, LeLacure, from St. John.

"Back at the dressing station the place was crowded with wounded.
Some poor chaps had died since they were carried in from the field. The ambulances could not get the wounded away quick enough, for as quick they were cleared, they would pile up again.

"Well, that night we slept a sort of troubled sleep, while shells were drop-ing all around us. Saturday we were ordered to reinforce the Second and Third Canadian Brigades. We passed through Ypres, which was on fire.
They are continually shelling that place of beauty, and the poor inhabitants are leaving, some barefooted, some crippled, little children, etc., all to seek shelter elsewhere. We reinforced our brigades near St. Julian, and that night we slept in a farm house, and at 2 o'clock we were on the march again. That day were worked hard, while our men joined in the attack.

"I must quote one little experience where we had one narrow escape. We were as usual helping the peer stretch-bearers carry the wounded off the field. We were on a farm where the telegraph office was, also our staff.
Away out on the field could be seen two men tugging at a stretcher, to get it to safety. Well, G. Gardner and three St. John boys and myself volunteered to carry him in, so away we started for the field. We got our man and we were passing a hedge when we heard a shell coming at us. We dropped the man and got flat on our faces, when the shell exploded nine feet from us. We were covered with mud, stones and pieces of shell but not a man hurt. We were awful lucky. We put our wounded man on our shoulders again and got to the station, although shells were dropping all around but none closed than 100 yards.

"At nine that night we were ordered back to our starting point, landing at 2 a. m. We slept in the field, although raining, until a couple of heavy shells burst quite near us and covered us with mud again. Then we moved back about 300 yards to a farm where I am now. I believe we will go back and be reorganized. Our brigade lost 75 per cent of its total strength."

NEWS LETTER OF HARPER

HARPER, July 9.—A trip to Catalina island was enjoyed by quite a large party of Harper people Monday.
The party left Newport wharf about 7 o'clock in the launch W. K., going direct to the island, and after a pleasant day spent among the various attractions there, a start was made for home about 5 o'clock, but after going about five miles, it was found to be too rough for navigation and they were forced to return and spend the night at Catalina. Owing to lack of hotel accommodations most of the party were forced to spend the night on the sand or on the boat, most of them without sleep. The fish should be well fed, as the "sea sick" portion was well in the majority. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Virgin, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs.
James Gough and son Buster, Mr. and Mrs. George Hemphill and son Horace, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Allenman,

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.
Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

SPENT STOLEN MONEY ON VICTIM'S FAMILY

NEW YORK, July 9.—The thief who robbed and then took his unsuspecting victim out in an automobile rented with the proceeds of his thefts, has been sentenced to one year in the penitentiary in Queen's County Court.
He is Herbert W. Scholtz of 30 Linden street, Brooklyn. His dupe was Anna Sander, 17, who kept books in her father's grocery store at 216 Union avenue. Mrs. Sander swore that Scholtz induced her daughter to supply him with her father's checks signed in blank, and then cashed them.
Altogether he got about $300.

GIRL FALLS TO DEATH TRYING TO SAVE DOLL

NEW YORK, July 9.—A motherless girl, Irene Taylor, four years old, living with her sisters on the third floor at 419 Third avenue, when rain fell cried out:
"My doll will get wet—she has no raincoat."
The child ran to the fire escape to get the doll, among the flowers in a box. The box collapsed and fell three stories with Irene who died in Bellevue an hour later.

TINIEST DONKEY FOR THE BRONX ZOO

NEW YORK, July 9.—Hugh G. Tyrwhitdrake of Cobtree Manor, England, who arrived on the steamer Trans-brought with him a collection of weird animals and birds to show Dr.

W. T. Hornaday, director of the Bronx Zoological Park, with a view to their acquisition by that institution.
In the collection were a lioness, a reed buck, many birds of prey, two greater birds of paradise and the smallest donkey on earth, 5 years old and measuring twenty-nine inches high at the shoulder.

GIRL, 14, SAVES CHUM IN SWIMMING POOL

NEW YORK, July 9.—Fourteen-year-old Lillian Dalton of 348 Baltic street, Brooklyn, saved Marguerite McDonald from drowning in a public swimming pool at President street and Fourth avenue, Brooklyn. Miss Marguerite, who is 16 and weighs twenty pounds more than the other girl, was seized with a cramp and had gone under twice when the other dived in and rescued her.

Grateful that her daughter had been restored to her, Mrs. R. McDonald, 120 Fourteenth street, wrote to the Carnegie Hero Fund, naming Lillian Dalton as a worthy recipient of a medal.

BRIDEGROOM FLED, SO SHE TOOK ANOTHER

NEW YORK, July 9.—Miss Victoria
Miller of 157 Eighth street, Jersey City, proved too resourceful a young woman to be left waiting at the church.

She was to have been married to Stanislaw Kwiatkowski. In advance of the ceremony he was given a dower of $250, and, according to the bride, fled at once. He was arrested in Brooklyn. Meanwhile Miss Miller hunted up an old flame, Steven Solinski, and was married to him before the guests assembled.

parents or guardian of the minor, if an action for that purpose is brought within a certain time.

Would Upset Things
Taken on the face of it, this opinion appeared to upset the customs followed by county clerks. It looked as though the practice of demanding written consents for applicants under 18, if a male, and 15, if a female, would be done away with. It looked as though the county clerk would have to issue a license to, say, a boy of 12 and a girl of 10. Why not? The opinion seemed to point that way.

But District Attorney West holds otherwise. He says that the state dealt only with Section 56. It did not take up and consider Section 49, which contains rules and regulations for the guidance of county clerks in relation to marriage licenses.

That section contains the following: "If the male is under the age of 21 years, or the female is under the age of 18, and such person has not been previously married, no license must be issued by the county clerk unless the consent in writing of the parents of the person under age, or one of such parents, or of his or her guardian, is presented to him, duly verified by such parents, or parent, or guardian, and such consent must be filed by the clerk, and he must state such facts in the license."

Following a conference with the district attorney, County Clerk Williams announced that he would follow the law that is directed to him.

"The district attorney holds that my powers to issue a license are limited by Section 69," said Williams. "As hitherto, any male under 21 must have the written consent, sworn to, of a parent or guardian. If he is under 18, I will not give him a license. Any girl under 18 and over 15 can get a license, if proper consent is given. If the girl is under 15 there will be no license forthcoming from my office at least, not until some court makes me. I don't believe that any law should allow marriage licenses to be given to kids just out of the cradle. The supreme court ruling may be construed that legally such licenses can be issued. I prefer to take the stand that there is a limit, and that the limit is 18 years for males and 15 for females."

Probably one of the most direct results of the ruling in the Ambrose

For the Family Medicine Chest

Green Bay, Wis., Mrs. Wm. F. Bubolz says: "I always use Foley's Honey and Tar for our children as it quickly breaks up their colds with no bad after effects, and they like to take it."

In this season of coughs, colds and croup, every family medicine chest should be supplied with a good cough medicine that can be relied upon when needed.

Such a family cough syrup is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. This standard medicine has been on the market for years and in many sections was found in every home in the days when doctors were not so handy and when money was scarcer. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is an excellent medicine for coughs, colds, raw or inflamed throat, hoarseness, tightness and soreness of the chest, croup and whooping cough. It is an absolutely safe remedy, containing only healing ingredients, and free from any harmful drugs.

case may be in stopping annulments of marriages in which either of the parties is a minor. Should girl under 15 or a youth under 18 manage to defraud the license clerk into issuing a marriage license, evidently a wedding consummated upon that license could be annulled.

However, should a youth of 19 or 20 swear he was 21 and get a marriage license, or should he swear that a girl of 17 was 18, and thus secure a license, the chances of getting an annulment or a marriage performed upon such a license might be exceedingly slim.

In effect, the supreme court ruling is that in such cases, marriage having been consummated, both parties being legally capable of consent, the marriage would be valid, though it had been put across in the face of the instructions to the county clerk.

California Petroleum Report

The California Petroleum Corporation and subsidiaries' statement of earnings for six months ended June 30, 1915, partly estimated, shows as follows:
Net earnings $684,431
Expended on new wells 77,099
Depreciation and betterments 37,730
Other deductions 119,000
Interest 58,644
Fortified of earnings applicable to stock of subsidiary companies in hands of public 16,206
Total deductions 308,580
Balance 375,851

"May and June estimated.
The corporation has issued the following statement in connection with the reduction in the deferred dividend:

"Notwithstanding that the preferred stock is entitled to a cumulative dividend and that the amount held back, 75c a share, must later be paid before dividends can be paid on the common stock, the board has decided that it is for the best interests of all of the stockholders that its available funds should be used for other purposes. At the present time the oil business as a whole on the Pacific coast is in a depressed condition. Large stocks of oil have accumulated and are being carried in storage at the present time, and a large overproduction exists. Competition for the limited market is keen, which has resulted in a continual lowering of prices. Your companies have on hand nearly 2,500,000 barrels of oil and are now carrying in storage, and are accumulating at the present time about 100,000 barrels monthly which it finds necessary to provide storage for at a considerable cost.

"Contracts held by the companies at a good price for their oil have expired and the sales at the present time only cover the cost of production at a greatly reduced price. It is believed by your directors that the general world conditions have had a material bearing on the present conditions in California, and it is hoped that with the ending of the war the oil situation in this state, in the meantime, it is considered advisable to conserve, in order to be well fortified during the great uncertainty of present conditions. It is also believed that the best interests of the stockholders will be served by using to some extent available money for the acquisition of additional properties available at attractive prices on account of the depressed conditions in California. Such acquisitions should result to the great advantage of your companies when conditions improve, as

TREMENDOUS OVATION GIVEN KITCHENER

LONDON, July 9.—Tremendous crowds gave an ovation to Lord Kitchener today, who addressed a recruiting mass meeting in Guild hall. Crowds bigger than those witnessing the coronation parade through the streets cheered the war minister and fifty thousand were massed outside the Guild hall cheering.

Kitchener said recruiting was much better than ten months ago.

but let me emphasize the fact we need more men and still more men," he went on to say. "Make no mistake. This war will be a long one. Our position today is as serious as at the beginning."

Kitchener praised the British Colonial troops, telling of the Canadian victories in Flanders, of the Australian and New Zealand victories in the Dardanelles and of the South Africans in the German African possessions.

FOUR SURRENDER ON BEING INDICTED IN BAY CITY

NEW YORK, July 9.—Postoffice promptness saved the life of Charles Hakelberg, 63, of 415 West Fifth street, whose wife died recently. Hakelberg wrote to Samuel Howard of 551 West Fifty-ninth street, saying: "When you get this I will be dead."

The letter, mailed at 5 a. m., was in the 8 a. m. delivery. Howard, with a policeman, hurried to Hakelberg's room, finding him, with noose adjusted, preparing for death. Hakelberg was arrested but discharged.

THE OTHER SIDE

People governed by emotions wholly, never want for spokesmen. It is thus that the meritorious side of a controversy often remains in the background, and so far as any public showing is concerned, seems not to exist. Nevertheless when the final test comes, says the Pasadena News, the basic common sense of the people is found able to withstand a flood of maudlin sentimentality, and the output of the sob sisters, male and female, beats harmlessly against the bulwark of sound judgment.

An effort, engaging many excellent men and women, is now being made to save the murderer from discomfort. Over this person at present is a threat of being hanged. The real fault to be found is that the threat so often proves to be nothing more. It thus is far from perfect as a deterrent. If busybodies did not interfere with the execution of the law, if they would refrain from sending flowers to the assassin, and cease to regard his welfare as the one sacred trust, it is safe to say that the number of murders would be greatly reduced. It is safe to say this because where capital punishment is enforced, the number has been kept down. In New York city there are more murders than in the United Kingdom. The serious problem is not the apprehension of the guilty, but how to meet the united effort of unscrupulous lawyers and curious laymen to break down the laws relating to the crime. This is a fact, even though seventy-five murders in New York city in the past year remain absolute mysteries. The statement that murder will out is untrue. The nifty-pammy coddling of the offender who is caught, is rendering such eventuation of minor importance anyhow. Better let him go, than to catch, and make a pet of him.

There are now several murderers in the California penitentiaries guilty of heinous and unprovoked deeds of savagery. There is no hope that they could be reformed. There is nothing in their natures to which appeal may be made. At large they were a menace to society, and while incarcerated, a burden, an expense, and a menace still. There ever is the chance of escape, perhaps through the office of a weak-kneed executive. The idea in putting them out of the way is not revenge. The sole idea is protection. In theory, life imprisonment is more dreadful than death. In actuality, the convicted murderer whines for the life sentence, and exults when he receives it. Such a sentence, made absolute, would be a barrier between him and a free range for killing. He would have to select his victims from among guards and fellow convicts. For society in general it would be protection against this individual alone, since the assassin does not shrink from a sentence to life imprisonment, and the possibility strikes no terror to the thug.

Since the agitation against capital punishment became acute, there has been a veritable wave of peculiarly horrid offenses in Southern California. This means nothing to the agitators. There is no circumstance that impresses them save that a murderer has a virtual right to slay as he pleases, but must be shielded from hurt. Why do they not expend some part of their pity on the families of the murdered? Why do they not seek to reform the potential murderer before his hands have been dyed red?

SANE FOURTH OF JULY

The Fourth of July was observed sanely throughout the country. At a time like this, with the nerves of our people more or less on edge and with our patriotic impulses much worked upon by circumstances and events growing out of the great war, it would not have been surprising had there been untoward acts or speech in some places in the celebration of this great national holiday. But, happily, the day was marked by the exemplification of that splendid poise for which the American people have become justly famous throughout the world. There was no rabid outbreak of consequence anywhere. The orations generally were moderate in tone, although intensely patriotic. Happily, most of them were pacific, rather than combative, in tenor. The great war beyond seas has disposed the American people toward peace more strongly than ever.—Pasadena Star.

DISROBES AT ALTAR IN MIDST OF PRAYER

NEW YORK, July 9.—A score were at prayer in the Holy Family Catholic Church of Union Hill, N. J., when a good-looking, well-dressed woman of about 30 passed from a front pew to the altar rail and disrobed.

The Rev. J. N. Griess summoned a policeman, who wrapped the woman in a cloak and took her to the police station. She said she was Mrs. Frances Earl, but refused to give her address. She will be taken to the County Insane Asylum.

Today's Feature Story

[By a United Press Staff Correspondent]

[NOTE: Charles W. Scovel is lecturer on life insurance at the University of Pittsburgh, associate general agent of one of the big insurance companies and a leader in the movement to have life insurance made the subject of thorough special courses in the schools and universities. He was asked by the United Press to tell of the present situation in this country from the insurance standpoint and to say why it was that $50,000,000 was put into life insurance by the people of this country last year.]

BY CHARLES W. SCOVEL
(Written for the United Press)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 26.—Business conditions are undoubtedly far better today than for a long time. Of course the current is not yet strong, save in war order channels. In many lines little improvement in actual results has yet been measured. But confidence is here. It is widespread now, and is expanding. People feel that a general forward movement is already well under way. Watchful waiting for whatever may turn up is at an end. It has been replaced by active planning and the starting of things. The only eye now watchful is that seeking an empty hand-wagon seat in the prosperity procession.

This is confirmed by what I learn from life insurance men—from company heads down to the agent circulating upon an industrial route. I consider it an extremely substantial basis upon which to generalize. The life insurance agents in their respective lines reach every class of people. Few can so soon sense a return of business assurance and pulse its probable trend.

Certainly this is not a case of "the wish being father to the thought," for last year's poor conditions in the Pittsburgh district did not prevent new policies for $85,000,000 being placed here.

That was a substantial gain over any previous year.

It was not all "big" insurance. The small "individual" policy and the income and endowment policies written in four, five and six figures were represented, each of them, by above normal.

Herein, it might be said, is to be found strong evidence:

(1) That the business depression was, as a certain well known leader of our national thought and action has said, largely "psychological."

(2) That thrift has been greatly encouraged by the examples of hard times within our own country and by the smoke and ruin of war abroad.

The man who in the course of hard times can even be successfully urged to put his money into a policy that will protect his family against his death over a certain number of years and protect him by income should he survive the number of years for which it is written has alone no firm faith in luck. He must see for himself that beneath the quicksands of business uncertainty there is such a sure foundation that when his next premium comes due conditions will have surely been restored so toward normal that he will be able to meet it.

One of the notable things is that the thrift encouraged by hard times has developed the fact that those practicing it have shown supreme faith in our business institutions. There is nothing new in the manner in which thrift has manifested itself; people have always managed to save more in hard times than in good. But the old tendency to distrust of custodian institutions was, in the last year, encouragingly absent. The people not only did not lose faith in those institutions and return all that they had to the loose brick in the hearth or the secret niche in the garret, but with the admirable spirit retained faith in their investments throughout.

In the Mining World

From the Los Angeles Financial News.

Development of the large ore body which was crosstied several weeks ago on the 565-foot level in the United Eastern mine in the Tom Reed-Gold Road district, Arizona, is determining its value in no uncertain manner, and is proving its breadth and grade to be all that was claimed at the time of its discovery. The drifts that are being extended along its strike are demonstrating it to be a most remarkable ore body. Dr. Walter Harvey Wood, the eminent geologist, who recently inspected the United Eastern mine, said: "It is a very remarkable ore body. One of the most remarkable I have ever seen. I shall follow its development with great interest."

Colonel L. P. Hansen of Pasadena, who is heavily interested financially in the Pittsburgh mine, at Oatman, Arizona, has just returned to his home after spending the greater portion of a week in the mine workings. "He is much encouraged," says an Oatman letter, "by the showing, and so expressed himself on the day of his departure from the camp." This mine is being advanced at the rate of eight feet every twenty-four hours and may enter an ore shoot within a few hours.

G. A. Milne, of Scott Bar, Siskiyou county, made a month's clean-up at the mine last week, netting $1950 in specimen gold. The smallest pieces netted over $1 each, while the largest was worth $438. The entire clean-up was added to Siskiyou county's mineral exhibit at the exposition.

The Corona de Oro Mining Company, in Trinity county, is preparing to build a flume two miles long to bring water from Cedar creek to its ground at Hawkins bar on the Lower Trinity. A tunnel will be needed. The cost of tunnel and flume will be $25,000.

The Copper Star Mining Company of New York has filed articles of incorporation with the Arizona Corporation Commission. The capital is $20,000. Henry S. Kip and Gerard P. Herrick are the directors.

The Vienna Consolidated Mines and Smelting Company of Phoenix, Arizona, has been incorporated by C. A. Scott, L. Strauss and Lewis Deyer, with a capital of $5,000,000.

Bandits looted the La Cobia mine in Sonora, Mexico, grabbed $300 in gold, confiscated all provisions and galloped away unscathed.

Gold mining is the most fascinating, safe, lucrative and independent occupation in the world, says the Randsburg Miner. "The desire for possession of metallic wealth is the one great incentive to progress. It is an industry from which times its greatest impulses, and the records of history prove that when nations were engaged in active mining for gold, silver and other precious metals they were most progressive and prosperous. The mine for gold has no evil shadow following his prosperity. It is true that he may hunt over a large territory before finding a paying mine; he may also have to spend his capital to bring the ore to the surface and extract the precious metal—but there are all uncertainty ends. He has absolute wealth. He fears no panic. On the appearance of his gold panic subsides. He has no dread of competition; with the gold from his mine he can stand by the side of the greatest merchant, secure in the knowledge that his wealth is safe from all fluctuations. He need not fear a fluctuating market, for it is gold that commands all markets. The farmer, the manufacturer, the merchant eagerly send their wares from the most distant corners of the world to tempt him to exchange for their products and merchandise. In this age of progress gold mining is becoming recognized as a legitimate business, and not a gamble, as heretofore, and one of the safest and most profitable classes of investment."

BOY WRITES MOTHER 'DON'T WORRY,' DROWNS

NEW YORK, July 9.—A few minutes after she had received word from her 20-year-old son, Theodore G. Brewer, not to worry, as he would be careful when boating and swimming, Mrs. Alice Brewer South Orange, received a telegram that the youth had been drowned Sunday while canoeing on a lake in Maine.
He was the son of former Village President Graham H. Brewer, who died in 1913.

Dr. Wilcox has moved to Padgham's Jewelry Store, where he is better prepared than ever for making glasses on short notice.

MERRY EVENING

Favorite Club Member Is Welcomed; Mrs. Eaton and Miss Baker Entertain

The presence of Miss Ruth Larson of La Junta, Colorado, was a feature of the pleasant gathering of the N. M. U. girls, who were entertained by Mrs. Walter Eaton and Miss Joy Baker, at the latter's home, last evening.

Needlework was practically abandoned while the company besieged this favorite member with a storm of questions while the hours flew merrily past.

Miss Larson has promised to return the last of July for a longer stay and the club members are planning to properly celebrate her return.

Late in the evening the hostesses invited the company into the dining room where they gathered 'round a long table centered by an exquisite basket of Maman Cochet buds and sprays of asparagus fern and here a delicious two course collation was served.

Among those present were Misses Ruth Larson, Alice Wasser, Adeline Hill, Fleming, Hazel Stockinger, Marguerite Wallace, Zelma Sturgeon and Joy Baker; Mesdames Jack Palmer and Walter Eaton.

Honors Father's Birthday

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Peckham, 111 East Pine street, was the scene of a merry little dinner party last evening when Mrs. Peckham entertained in honor of the birthday of her father, Mr. P. G. Givens.

The table was artistically centered by a vase of Cecil Bruner roses and ferns and a feature of the delicious dinner was the big white frosted birthday cake, bearing its twinkling burden of sixty tiny pink candles which were extinguished midst a shower of good wishes.

Among those who enjoyed a social time following the birthday spread, were Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Givens, Miss Elizabeth Givens, Charles and James Givens, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Peckham.

Leave For Sacramento

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hawley left this morning over the Salt Lake Route for Sacramento where Mr. Hawley has accepted a position as architect in the State Department of Engineering.

They have rented their new bungalow home at 1407 Bush street to Frederick H. Eley, with whom Mr. Hawley has been associated in architecture for the past year.

The many friends of this popular couple sincerely regret their departure. Mrs. Hawley was formerly Miss Nellie Bacon, office deputy for Sheriff C. E. Rudnick, and her sunny disposition won a host of warm friends, while Mr. Hawley has been a prominent Y. M. C. A. worker and "live" member of the Baraca class of the First Presbyterian church.

Both have been enthusiastic workers in the Christian Endeavor Society of that church and success and happiness in their new home is the wish unanimously extended to them.

THE MAN WITHOUT A CITY

He gets up at the alarm of a Bullocks clock, buttons his Haris & Frank suspenders to Mullen & Bluet overalls; washes his face with Owl Drug Co. soap, in a California Hardware pan, sits down to an Eastern Outfitting Co's table; eats Cudahy meat and Sperry flour cooked with Swift's lard on a Union Hardware stove; puts a Sears & Roebuck bridle on a Corona mule; ploughs a farm covered with a Pomona mortgage with a Montgomery & Ward plow.

When bed time comes he reads a Los Angeles paper want ads, answers a Santa Ana ad and decides to buy from a Los Angeles firm; eats some parcel post apples, crawls under a Hamburger blanket, wondering when his mail order suit will arrive; and then to be kept awake by a Santa Ana dog, his own home product.

He decides to ask the business men of the town to support him in his effort to rid the city of this nightly nuisance which retards the growth of their prosperous city.

CHILDREN'S PARTY

Winsome Little Maid Celebrates Her Fourth Birthday

The fourth birthday of little Miss Dorothy Fritz, the winsome baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Denton Fritz of South Broadway, was happily celebrated by a bevy of playmates yesterday afternoon.

The home was prettily decorated with a variety of fragrant roses, but the youngsters chose the lawn for their merry frolics and games, which were supervised by Mrs. Fritz, who succeeded in giving the children a jolly time.

A pretty scene was enacted when the kiddies gathered round the gaily decorated birthday table where each place was marked by a tiny American flag, the patriotic scheme also being observed in the decorative motif of the napkins.

The beautiful yellow frosted birthday cake with its four mellow candles, was the center of attraction, however, and as the tiny hostess blew out the twinkling omens, her little friends made childish good wishes. An abundance of ice cream was enjoyed with the birthday cake.

Little Miss Fritz was well remembered on this important occasion with numerous pretty gifts, and among the playmates who joined the merry-making were Margaret Turner, Mary Lou and Bess Pomeroy, Veda and Eleanor Mitchell, Ethel and Tiny Wilhoit, Elizabeth Roehm, Velda and Newell Garlock, and Robert Chapman.

INTERESTING MEETING

District Executive Board and President's Council Outline Year's Club Work

A meeting of the executive board and a presidents' council of the Southern District Federation of Women's Clubs was held Thursday, July 8, from 1:30 to 4 o'clock, in Taylor's banquet room. Mrs. J. J. Lawton, the district president, presiding. Other members of the board present were Mrs. J. E. Gowen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. L. Deimling, chairman of legislation; Mrs. Alba J. Padgham, chairman of music, and Mrs. F. R. Aldrich of La Habra, president of the Orange County Federation of Women's Clubs. The members of the presidents' council were Mrs. Mary F. Davis, president of the Women's Improvement Club, La Habra; Mrs. George Terry, president, Anaheim Elbell; Mrs. J. G. Dunn, president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, Garden Grove; Mrs. C. F. Crose, president Santa Ana Elbell, and Mrs. P. L. Topple, president Santa Ana Woman's Club. Mrs. J. Frank Russell of Modesto, state recording secretary, was a guest of honor. Mrs. Russell is a woman of charming appearance, has a fund of club knowledge and brought to the Southern District many helpful ideas for future club work. The invitation from the Imperial County Federation of Women's Clubs for the Southern District to hold its next annual convention in El Centro, November 9 to 12, inclusive, was accepted.

Plans presented by Mrs. Lawton for work the coming year included the appointing of sub-committees in the County Federation to work with the district department chairmen in their respective lines of work, these sub-committees to be the county department chairmen whenever such exist, and the new appointees to be county department chairmen and voting members of the district board.

Mrs. Deimling stated that her department, legislation, would specialize parliamentary usage and drill work in addition to following plans outlined by the state chairman of legislation. Mrs. Padgham, chairman of music, will ask the clubs in the Southern District to have musical numbers on every program, when possible, and to specialize on the work of American composers.

The keynote of Mrs. Lawton's plan is unity of all clubs along lines of the essential work, leaving the details of work needed in each city, town and community to be worked out by the individual clubs in these localities. The grouping of department work, in both county and district under three or four principal heads, viz: Education; Conservation of National Resources; Conservation of Human Life, and Club Extension, was another plan offered by Mrs. Lawton who is an enthusiastic exponent of county Federation, believing that the future success of women's clubs depends upon the well informed club members working as a unit in the individual clubs and these clubs working in harmony in county, district and state federation, making the education of the individual member the foundation of the structure.

The reports given by the several club presidents at the president's council were mainly plans for the coming year's work, giving promise of a successful year. The following department appointments were confirmed by the executive board:

For San Diego county Club House Loan Fund—Mrs. W. C. Crandall, L. A. Golla. Endowment—Mrs. Geo. Butler, San Diego. Art—Mrs. Robert E. Masters, San Diego. Press—Mrs. N. J. McDowell, San Diego. History and Landmarks—Mrs. R. M. Whitney, Grossmont, Cal.

A Lesson in Economy

Why wait any longer for your warm weather suit?

Some men have bought theirs far back as a month ago and are enjoying every comfort a light weight suit affords—also feel they have slipped something over on the late buyers in having a wider variety to select from.

That comfort and that feeling of advantage over someone means something, of course. But isn't it more practical to buy now and get a full return for your money by getting a full season's wear out of it? That's Economy— isn't it?

Cost of War," was ably handled by the members, and visitors present, all agreeing that the cost of war to the world in the loss of health, happiness, education, music, art, literature and property, is too great; that it has, in a few months, torn down a civilization that has taken years to build up, and that peace is what women are striving for.

The subject for discussion at the next meeting will be "The Women of the Future." The meeting closed with a poem, entitled: "The Laboring Man," after which delicious watermelon was served by the hostess, while a social chat was enjoyed by all.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT FOR PEEPING HE GOES TO JAIL THIRTY DAYS

Los Alamitos Man Is Tried on Disturbance Charge; Does Not Take Stand

Instead of peeping into a bedroom window, J. E. Wells of Los Alamitos is going to peep out through a jail window, if he does any peeping at all in the next thirty days.

This morning Wells, who lives at Los Alamitos, was tried by Justice Cox on a charge of disturbing the peace. The accusation was that he peeped into a bedroom at the home of Mrs. M. R. Clark at Los Alamitos. According to the evidence given this morning, Mrs. Clark was away from home with her son, who had been shot in Los Angeles. Wells formerly boarded at the Clark home. Essie Clark, daughter of Mrs. Clark, was at home when Wells is said to have gone to the house.

A neighbor, E. J. Elliott, saw Wells, and ordered him away from the premises.

Justice Cox thought the evidence sufficient to convict Wells, and upon it, the man was sentenced to thirty days in jail.

TRAVEL IS TURNED TO THE WESTERN COAST

That travelers to the various great summer resorts in the United States all intend to make the through trip to California to visit its two expositions, is the opinion of Chas. S. Fee, passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific Company. He is in receipt of a letter from F. J. Haynes, president of the Yellowstone Western Stage Company operating in Yellowstone National Park, which says that the stages have handled in the first fifteen days of the season the greatest number of people in its history, and that practically every traveler held tickets which showed either that he had already visited California, or was on his way westward to do so.

The figures show that, from June 15th to 30th, the stage company, running in conjunction with the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line, handled 3,350 tourists. Three-fourths of these held through tickets for a west-bound trip to California, and the balance had already been there and were returning home.

The Southern Pacific recently announced that almost a special train a day was arriving with tourists, each train carrying about 200, and that regular trains were running in at least two sections. The schools have closed throughout the country, and the vacation period is on, which allows families to come west who were only waiting until the children should have their time free.

One of the ancient city guilds of London, the Glass Sellers' Company, obtained in 1664 the right to smash glass of foreign manufacture wherever it was found. The charter has never been revoked.

OIL WELLS MEN AFTER LOWER TAXES UPON OIL LAND

Today the county board of equalization received two petitions asking for lower assessments upon lands that Assessor James Sleeper has assessed as oil lands.

First came Attorney Henry Ashe of San Francisco, who was attorney for Abe Ruef in the famous graft cases. Ashe was here today as a representative of the Monte Cristo Oil Co. Sleeper put an assessment of $10,050 upon the Monte Cristo well and $7000 upon the mineral rights in land near the well. Ashe declared that his company had spent $250,000 in this county, and that their property is not now paying anything. He said the well ought not be assessed for over $1000 and that the mineral rights should go in at $700 instead of $7000.

Assessor Sleeper stood pat. He contended that the mineral rights are fairly assessed. A fine well is located on adjoining property. No action was taken by the board of equalization.

Strain Objects
Thomas Strain objected to an assessment of $125 an acre upon twenty acres that he owns north of Placentia. He said he had spent $80,000 in drilling, and has not secured a good well. He said he bought the property years ago for $30 an acre. When asked how much he would take for it, now he said that he had never thought of a price. The petition for a reduction of the assessment was taken under advisement.

The supervisors will view both the Strain and the Monte Cristo properties.

There are, too, quite a number of Europeans who would like to see America first.

SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 9, 1915.

SUGAR FACTORIES TO RUN SEASON OF 1916, SPITE OF REMOVAL OF TARIFF

"In spite of rumors to the contrary, practically every sugar factory in the United States is making preparations to operate during the season of 1916." This statement was made today by A. J. Crookshank, one of the officials of the Santa Ana Co-operative Sugar Company. This plant will open its season's campaign on July 20.

Crookshank recently returned from Denver where he attended the convention of the Sugar Manufacturers' Association of the United States. Sugar makers from all the big sugar producing states of the country were in attendance at the convention.

Despite Tariff Removal
 "I make this statement in full cognizance of the fact that the tariff on sugar is to be removed next March."

"It is true that under ordinary conditions this taking off of the protection on sugar would spell disaster for the various factories. But the truth of the matter is that present conditions are extraordinary."

"The European war is the one great factor that is making the conditions unusual. On account of the war sugar exportation from Germany and Russia has come to a stop."

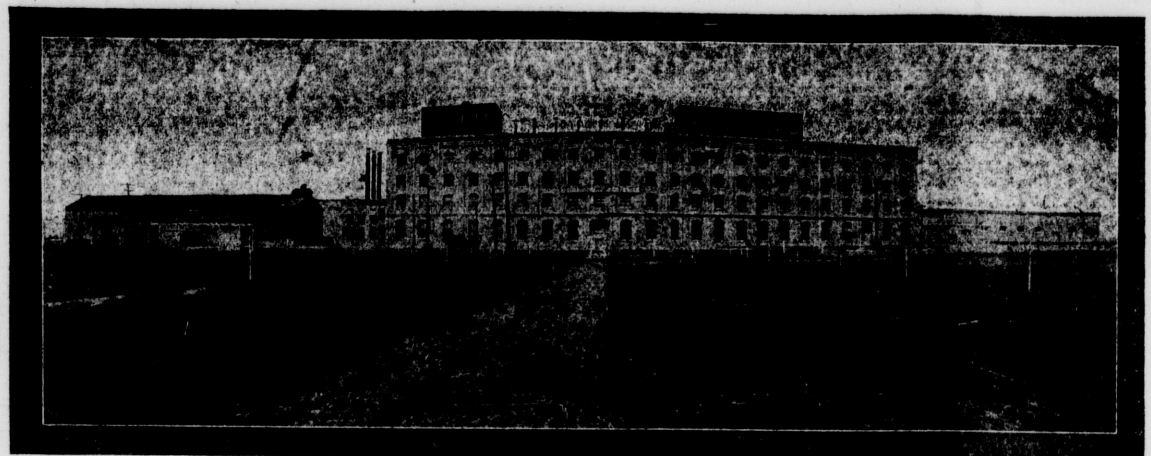

Safe for the Present
 "Even if the war in Europe should stop within the next month the factories in the United States would run another year as it would still take more than a year's time for conditions to adjust themselves in Europe. And the longer the war continues the longer time will the manufacturers in this country be assured that they can operate their plants."

"In short, this matter of tariff is not merely so vital a one with the sugar makers of the United States at present as is the best seed question."

Seed Scarce
 "Seed is scarce. This, again, has been brought about by the war in Europe. No seed is being exported from Germany or Russia."

"As far as the Co-operative plant is concerned, we have seed in the warehouse right now to plant our 1916 crop. But, should the war continue for a protracted period, we will be in the same position that many of the factories of this country are in at the present time—that is, facing a seed shortage next year."

HERE is shown a photo of the Southern California Sugar Company's factory, located on South Main street. This plant, as well as that of the Santa Ana Co-operative Sugar Company, will begin operations within the next few weeks. Both plants together will offer employment for approximately 525 men. It is now practically assured that in spite of the uncertainty as to the tariff and the unsettled conditions brought about by the European war all the sugar factories of the United States will be operated in the 1916 season.

"It was brought out at the convention in Denver that the sugar manufacturers of this country have been conducting an exhaustive investigation of the sugar industry for the past several years. In fact, so far-reaching has been this investigation and collection of data that the government has turned to the Sugar Manufacturers' Association for its information."

Plant to Open July 20
 The plant of the Co-operative Sugar Company will open on July 20. The factory will offer employment for about 300 men during the campaign. The beet dumps will be opened on July 16.

The Southern California Sugar Company's plant will open about July 23 or 24, though no definite date has yet been decided upon. This plant will employ about 225 men during the season.

Both local factories are practically ready to begin operations. Machinery has been overhauled, dumps repaired and everything gotten in readiness. The beet fields are in first class condition and it is expected that the sugar yield from the beets will be good.

MARKETING ORANGE JUICE MAY BE NEXT AT ORANGE

Orange Post, July 6: Members of the Commercial club and other local parties interested in attracting to Orange such industries as might do well here, listened with interest to H. Levitt of Riverside, as that gentleman explained the possibilities of an orange juice manufacturing concern here, such as he is conducting in a highly successful manner in Riverside.

The explanation made by Mr. Levitt of the possibilities of the machine for which he has a patent—a device for extracting the juice of the orange—convinced those who heard him that an orange juice plant should be established here. To that end it was decided to enlist the good offices of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, also to present the matter to packing house managers and to orange growers of this locality, since it is an industry that will well lend itself to co-operative efforts.

Good Market for Product
 It was made plain by the demonstration of the machine that instead of culls being thrown away—or packers paying for having them removed—they all may be sold, also that marketable oranges may be used to good advantage and profit to growers because of the location here of an orange juice factory. Said Mr. Levitt, who is a veritable bundle of enthusiasm:

"I put this orange juice matter up to the manager of one of the largest wholesale houses in Kansas City. He listened attentively and then said to me: 'Your proposition is perfectly good. We can sell your product of pure orange juice and granulated sugar, but if we buy a carload from you, can you furnish the second car?' I do not see why such a product as you have described should not become fully as popular as the now celebrated brands of grape juice, of which we have trouble in securing as much as we want."

Benefit to Grower
 The machine for which Mr. Levitt holds the exclusive patent, throws the juice from the orange without exposing it to the air, thus causing it to ferment, this process being accomplished also without coming in contact with the skin of the orange.

Locally, the greatest benefit to be derived by the use of the machines here would be to furnish a constant market for oranges that would otherwise bring the grower nothing, also to use vast quantities of higher grade fruit at times when the market for such is low, while thus using inferior grades of oranges, will ultimately have a tendency to prevent anything but the very best and highest grade of fruit being placed on the market.

To Place Machines
 It may be stated here that Mr. Levitt is not seeking a bonus, or any particular concession at the hands of this city, similar to those asked by the professional promoter, and that he came here at the request of Weinberg Brothers to make a demonstration of his product and what his machines will do. He is interested in placing the machines only in localities where there is an abundance of fruits to be worked up into juice, and that is as far as his interest goes in the business.

800 BARRELS IS MAY POOL WILL GIVE GROWERS $35,000 DAILY OUTPUT OF NEW WELL

Fullerton Tribune: Coyote well 24 of the Standard Oil Company is now flowing 800 barrels of 21½ gravity oil daily and promises to be one of the real big producers of the Fullerton field.

The bringing in of this excellent well will result in immediate increased activities in this locality, and if the oil market was anywhere near the normal point, the work of development would go to the extreme limit.

That things are getting quite busy in this section of the field is clearly evident. The Standard is now rigging up for well No. 6. The Union has just started on another well and is rigging up for still another.

The Amalgamated is also opening up for increased operations.

Anaheim Herald.—The May pool for Anaheim oranges has brought in a sum of $35,000. This is more than the entire output of the Anaheim Citrus Fruit association's first year in business and the June pool will disperse $50,000 to the members of the association.

This money will be distributed directly to the members of the association as all expenses of picking, packing and shipping have been deducted. The association has shipped to date 350 cars of oranges this season and there are 150 cars yet to ship. This means a total of 500 cars.

The Anaheim Citrus Fruit association has been the first to touch the $4.00 mark at the first of the season for the last two or three years, and it has not fallen behind this year as it has had some of the best prices on the market. Anaheim Supreme brand has brought as high as $5.25 this season.

MAINTAIN BY-PASS WHILE BRIDGE BUILDS

Orange News: When the present East Chapman avenue bridge is torn down to make way for the new structure, provision will be made for travel by making a road through the creek bed, either on the north or south side of the bridge.

Street Superintendent Buchanan stated that a road through the creek, passable for automobiles, would be constructed, so that there will be no interruption of travel. The East Chapman avenue street inside the city limits is also to be worked and put in good shape soon.

FOUND AT LONG BEACH
 The Ford belonging to M. E. Beebe, manager of the Anaheim Sanitarium, stolen at Anaheim Tuesday night, was recovered at Long Beach. It was found standing in front of a church. The machine was not damaged. It had been driven eighty miles.

3000 GALLONS OF WATER PUMPED EACH MINUTE AT OLIVE

With a capacity of pumping 3000 gallons of water per minute, one of the best wells in the county was recently put in operation by the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company at plant No. 3, located at the east end of the Olive bridge crossing the Santa Ana river.

The new well is 407 feet deep. It goes through three stratas of water. It has a diameter of twenty-seven inches, reduced to twenty inches at 160 feet and to fourteen inches at 250 feet.

150-Horsepower Motor
 The pump is operated by a 150-horsepower motor. At a recent test, when the pump was not running at its maximum speed, it showed a capacity of 3200 gallons per minute, or 200 gallons more than was guaranteed by the pump manufacturers.

The output of the well is pumped into the main canal of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company and is used to irrigate lands in the entire Santa Ana district.

Both pump and fixtures were installed by the Layne-Bowler Corporation of Los Angeles, M. R. Shipley, Orange county agent, making the sale.

Officials Present
 Those present at the testing of the pump recently were F. T. Richards of the Layne-Bowler Corporation; George Dierker, president of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company; Secretary O. E. Mansur; Directors L. E. Smith, A. G. Finley, Fred Rohrs, H. W. Lewis; M. R. Shipley and W. L. Deimling, Santa Ana manager of the Southern California Edison Company, and others.

The well of the Anaheim Union Water Company is the only one in the county at present having a larger capacity than the one just opened at the Olive bridge. The Anaheim company's well developed a head of 400 inches. Directors of the Santa Ana Valley Company are confident that when the new plant is run at its maximum capacity it will be one of the best in the south.

BREA GUSHER IS RECORD MAKER AS PRODUCER

Fullerton Tribune: The Birch gusher in Brea canyon continues to flow at a rate now down to about 700 barrels daily.

Its original production was about 2300, which continued for two or three years, then a gradual decline ensuing brought it to where it is today.

The oil is about 28 B gravity. The well has undoubtedly made a record of paying production in excess of any in the state.

NEW PUMPING PLANTS INSTALLED ON TRACTS

Claiming a record, the Dixon-Limb company sold and installed a Palmer pitless pump for R. A. Walker, 609 Bristol street. Though it was necessary to remove an old plant, the job was completed in two days, the order being taken Friday night and the pump installed by Sunday evening. R. B. Wardlaw has just installed a Palmer pitless pump at his place on West Fifth street.

Huntington Beach News: Contractor Harvey Garbar of Orange, who landed the job of constructing the addition to the bank building, has started on the new job and estimates that it will be completed in about 40 days. Mr. Garbar also has the contract for the new grammar school and he will probably be the low bidder on the new manual training building to be erected on the high school grounds, as he will be in a better position to handle it than any one else, having an organization on the ground, and can do the work for less than some one who has to move in for that particular job.

INFORMATION ABOUT BONDS

From the Los Angeles Financial News.

Every day in the year the State of California pays in interest on her bonded debt the sum of $2740. This is $82,200 per month or $1,000,000 per year. This interest account is one of the largest current expenses of the state. Last week the State Controller issued three warrants for the payment of the semi-annual interest bill, which amounted to $481,900, the interest bill on $24,098,000 state bonds. This interest paid covers interest on $14,000,000 worth of state highway bonds, the interest on which is $280,000; $3,238,000 San Francisco harbor bonds, interest $165,860; and San Francisco seawall bonds, $1,860,000, interest $36,000. If all the bonds voted at the last election are sold the state's annual interest will be $2,000,000, or $166,666.66 a month.

In this connection it might be said that local government in California, according to figures supplied by the Federal Census Bureau and made public in a bulletin issued by the State Tax Association of California, costs Californians more on a per capita basis than citizens of any other state have to pay for it. The bulletin says:

For local government purposes the average cost in the United States is $17.76 for each man, woman and child. In California it is $25.32. Any impression that the excess is due to the fact that more money is around loose and waiting to be spent is corrected by the bulletin's figures, which show a local public debt per capita in California of $51.18 as against $55.81

COCOANUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain multi-colored coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multicolored coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

STRONG, CAREFUL, CONSERVATIVE

THE CALIFORNIA NATIONAL BANK

SANTA ANA, CAL.

The country over. The increase in local tax levies per capita, the bulletin says, from 1902 to 1913, was 71 per cent. The public debt, for local purposes, jumped 127 per cent in the same period. Dudley Cates, secretary of the association, said the figures were supplied by the Federal Census Bureau.

It is expensive local government that makes high tax rates," the bulletin asserts. There is but one remedy, namely, by efficient management to cut the cost of operations.

Proposed Bond Issues
A campaign for a municipal bond issue for improvements of the city has been inaugurated in Burbank by the Board of Trustees, Chamber of Commerce, the Ladies' Auxiliary and other citizens of that place. The issue is for a city hall building, fire apparatus and electric light equipment.

Barry school district, Sutter county, will vote June 25 on a proposition to issue bonds to the amount of $5000 for school improvements.

Marysville will vote at an early date on a proposition to issue $20,000 bonds for drainage and sewer extension.

Mered is to hold a bond election for the purpose of voting bonds to build a municipal auditorium.

Authorized by Railroad Commission
Authority to issue $2,338,000 in six per cent collateral trust bonds has been granted by the Pacific Light and Power Corporation by the State Railroad Commission. The order, in effect, permits a continuance for two years of an outstanding bond issue which was to have matured July 1. The bonds are secured by $3,118,000 of first mortgage six per cent bonds of the Southern California Gas Company.

These latter bonds are part of those which were turned over to the Pacific Light and Power Corporation at the time that the Huntington-Batch-Kerkhoff interests in the two concerns were separated.

A decision extending until May 31, 1916, the authority heretofore granted to Midland Counties Public Service Corporation to issue $275,000 of refunding bonds to retire a like amount of bonds of Midland Counties Gas and Electric Company, and to issue $456,000 of refunding bonds to retire a like amount of bonds of Coalina Water and Electric Company, has been rendered by the commission.

Additional time within which the Midland Counties Public Service Corporation may issue $275,000 of refunding bonds to retire a like amount of bonds of the Midland Counties Gas and Electric Company, and $456,000 to retire like bonds of the Coalina Water and Electric Company, has been granted by an order of the State Railroad Commission. The extension is to May 31, 1916.

The commission has extended until December 31, 1915, the authority heretofore granted to San Diego and Arizona Railway Company to issue $9,000,000 of stock and $10,000,000 of bonds for the purpose of building 414 miles of railway from San Diego into the Imperial Valley. Work has been going forward on the line, and securities have been issued as the money is needed.

The Railroad Commission has issued an order extending the time to and including July 1, 1916, within which San Diego and Southern Railway Company may issue and sell bonds to the par value of $600,000.

N. W. Halsey & Co. are offering and will have ready for delivery on July 20 $672,500 Kings county highway 5 per cent bonds. The bonds are dated July 1, 1915, and the denomination is $1000 and one $500. The interest is payable annually July 1 and the bonds are due July 1, 1915 to 1940, inclusive. They are tax exempt in California and are available as security for deposit of state, county and municipal funds and as security for personal savings deposits. The assessed valuation of the county for 1914-15 is $12,450,270 and the total bonded indebtedness, this issue, is $672,500. The present estimated population of the county is 120,000. Kings county is situated in the San Joaquin valley and contains 741,700 acres of nearly level land, of which, according to the United States census of 1910, over 372,800 acres were planted in farms. Owing to favorable climatic conditions and an abundance of pure water derived from artesian wells and the Kings river and small streams, the farm acreage is increasing annually. Kings county is primarily a fruit-growing country; apricots, peaches, prunes and grapes being extensively cultivated. Dairying is a large and important industry of the county, and corn and alfalfa are also a source of revenue.

Irrigation districts bonds in California have developed into the most secure securities in the state and now have a better standing in the money markets of the United States than municipal bonds, says the Sacramento Union, according to a comparative report furnished by Mr. Paul M. Norbø, assistant state engineer. Before the establishment of an irrigation bonding commission, composed of the attorney-general, state engineer and superintendent of state lands, irrigation bonds were discredited, according to Norbø, but now their backing and assessments are considered preferable to other bonds. It has developed that an irrigation district can place its bonds ahead of any other institution in the state. The interests taking cognizance of the fact that there is money in the land and irrigation is necessary, and again that all irrigation projects are protected by the censor of the state bonding commission, which passes upon projects before bonds are allowed to be placed upon the market.

William R. Staats Company is offering first mortgage 5 per cent bonds, secured by the Forest Hill, San Francisco. The bonds are dated June 1, 1915, and mature June 1, 1921. As they are a lien on contracts of sale, on which monthly payments are being made, it is likely that a large part of the issue may be called at 101 before maturity. The bonds are in denominations of $100, $500 and $1000. The valuation of the property, based on several appraisals, follows:

List price of bonds.....$730,000
Less 20 per cent for selling and other expenses.....219,000
Amount due on contracts.....511,000
Market value of security, based on careful appraisal.....$613,000
Per cent of loan to market value, approximately 30 per cent.

Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors has sold bond issues this week as follows: Rivera school district $15,000 to William R. Staats Company; Garvey school district $10,000 to N. W. Halsey & Company; Lowell school district $25,000 to Union Bank and Trust Company, San Francisco; Los Angeles city school district $104,000 to R. H. Moulton; Los Angeles city school district $12,000 to Merrin, Drake & Wiley.

Bond issue of the Riverside school district, Placer county, has been sold by William R. Staats Company.

ORANGE KINDERGARTEN TEACHERS ARE CHOSEN

Orange News: The election of Miss Floy Price of Grand Rapids, Michigan, for kindergarten teacher at Lemon street school, made by the grammar school board Tuesday evening, completes the selection of teachers for the kindergarten which will be established in the local schools next year.

In response to petitions filed with the board it was decided to provide kindergarten rooms at both the Center and Lemon street schools. Miss Whipple will be in charge of the work at the Center street.

The rooms for the little ones will be made as attractive as possible and the work will be laid along the lines most approved by authorities on this work. Morning sessions will be held. The requirement will be that the child is over four and one-half years old.

It is expected that the work will open with about 35 little ones in each room. Miss Price was elected when Miss Hill, who had previously been elected, decided to remain in Santa Ana.

The school board decided also to make extensive improvements on the play grounds at the intermediate school. Some of the old pepper and gum trees will be cut out and a ball ground, volley ball and basket ball courts and tennis courts put in. It is stated that emphasis will be placed on systematic play during next year.

It was also decided to remove the old outdoor fountains and replace them with new ones. A fountain for the small children in the Lemon street school will also be installed.

Los Angeles Produce Market
There were hardly any changes in fruit prices yesterday and none whatever in the green vegetable list. Black figs are now coming in to the city in two layer boxes and are bringing $1.50 a box. Green Gage plums made their initial appearance and sold for $1.25 a lug.

Few sales of butter and eggs were recorded at the same prices as the previous day. Northern prices remained unchanged with the exception of cheese which went up to 11½ cents a pound. Receipts of eggs almost doubled and as reported were 406 cases, and of butter 60,200 pounds. No interest was displayed in cheese and arrivals were 450.

Fruit receipts were enhanced by the arrival of 102 boxes of grapes and 17 of figs, the other receipts being 188 boxes of peaches, and 749 lugs of plums. Potatoes were a little more common and 370 sacks came in, accompanied by other shipments to Los Angeles as follows: 15 sacks of onions, 538 sacks of beans, 13 sacks of sweet potatoes, 263 lugs of tomatoes, 7 cars of cantaloupes, and 18 cars of watermelons.

SPENDER OR INVESTOR, WHICH?

All Humanity is divided into two types—the Spender and the Investor. The Spender, following his own inclination, lets his money slip through his fingers and never gets very far from the bottom of the ladder.

The Investor, having lived within his income, and by self-denial saved part of his earnings, is on the road to the top.

Which type is the most honorable? All of us have a moral duty to ourselves, our families and society to perform. A savings account in this bank is a sound investment because the principal is safe and the interest paid promptly. And one dollar will open an account. 4 per cent interest.

HUNTINGTON BEACH HAPPY REUNION HELD AT BEACH BY OLD-TIME INDIANANS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Cal., July 9.—One of the most pleasant reunions held by any of the back eastern communities for some time took place here on Monday, July 5th, when in response to the invitation of F. H. Rigdon some thirty-six former residents of Marion, Indiana, gathered for a picnic and reunion in this city. Last year the reunion was held at Santa Monica, but as several of the families are now located at Huntington Beach and could not well leave, it was decided to make Huntington Beach the rendezvous.

The Huntington Beach company removed a tent which had been in use on Seventeenth street to a lot on the ocean front and served coffee free to the visitors. This tent was used as headquarters during the day, but much of the time was spent on the beach.

The Marion people are delighted with Southern California and prospects are that they will induce some of their eastern friends to join them here before long.

Work on the grammar school building, which has been delayed by a shortage of material, has been resumed. Every possible effort will be made to have the building in readiness by the time for opening school. Machinery, including band saw, rip saw, planer, jointer, etc., to the value of about $1000 has been ordered for the new manual training building. Under the plans for next year's work all manual training students will be required to do one day's work of mechanical drawing.

The prospect for a big bean crop never was better. The Huntington Beach company has several teams at work cultivating the bean fields to retain the moisture.

On Saturday the High School Board will meet to discuss plans and specifications for the new manual training building.

The regular meeting of the D. A. club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Homer French on Alabama avenue.

Trustee M. E. Helme and family have returned from San Diego, where they went by automobile.

Mrs. D. E. Dobbins and children of Upland are the guests of Mrs. Henry Ashmun.

Mr. and Mrs. John Killinger, Mrs. Esther Carpenter and William Hynes, all of Los Angeles, have taken a cottage at Twentieth and Olive for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gleasner of Albuquerque, New Mexico, have been visiting with M. D. Rosenberger and family. Mr. Gleasner is a brother of Mrs. Rosenberger.

Mrs. R. Courreges, son John Cour-reges, daughter Miss Jennie Cour-reges and Mrs. Peter Lacabanne have left for San Francisco by motor for the purpose of attending the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McCain of Pomona, parents of John McCain of this city, have taken a tent at the Tent

City grounds for the eleventh consecutive season.

SAYS ABOUT THIS GREAT WORK:

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL
The Curtis Publishing Co.

Edited by Edward W. Bok

"Why I like this illustrated edition of the Bible is because everything about it has been well done and seems to have been done in the right spirit. The Book itself has been approached by the annotator with reserve and intelligence, and by its artists with sympathy and knowledge. It has not been made into a meaningless picture book. The pictures here serve a distinct purpose. They enrich the text, but they do more; they intelligently explain it, and many a hitherto obscure passage will assume to thousands a new meaning through these eye-teaching pictures. Popularizing the Bible is a risky experiment in the hands of many, but it has been made a splendid achievement in this case."

Through an exclusive arrangement, we have been most fortunate in securing the Catholic Bible, Douay Version, endorsed by Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop (now Cardinal) Farley, as well as by the various Archbishops of the country. The illustrations consist of the full-page plates and maps approved by the Church, without the Tissot and text pictures. It will be distributed in the same bindings as the Protestant books and at the same Amount Expense Items, with the necessary Free Certificates.

Every one of the 600 pictures is a gem of art and the original conception of a master mind—a wordless discourse of wonderful force. These illustrations are introduced directly into the text, and each has been specially made to illuminate—i. e., "throw light upon"—the particular verse selected for illustration. Such marvelously faithful portrayal of Bible lands and scenes will prove a glorious revelation to all readers. Modern research has thrown a flood of light upon the people and places of Bible days, and this ripe knowledge shows forth on every page, so truthfully embellished as to give the text a new and personal meaning.
